

Constant Contact Celebrates Small Business Week Canada with “Get Down to Business” Events Nationwide

Educational Seminars Part of Month-Long Series to Help Small Businesses Reach Their Next Great Customers with Email Marketing and Social Media Marketing

TORONTO & VANCOUVER, British Columbia--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Small Business Week Canada (October 20-26, 2013) is fast approaching and to celebrate, Constant Contact® Inc. (NASDAQ: CTCT) will host Get Down to Business, a nationwide series of business-building events, throughout the month of October. These events, each with unique formats of educational presentations and panels, will feature Constant Contact’s team of marketing experts, including Canadian Regional Development Directors, Lisa Kember and Guy Steeves, as well as other thought leaders from each participating region.

“At Constant Contact, we are invested in our mission to help small businesses achieve success—and this could not be accomplished without education at a local level,” said Kember. “Our extensive network of marketing experts makes it possible for us to truly be involved in the field with these small business communities.”

Get Down to Business events will teach small businesses how they can leverage email marketing and social media marketing to engage with customers and drive business success. Attendees will walk away from these sessions with actionable steps that can be used to build out the framework for their next great campaign, and ultimately, achieve their business goals.

“There are thriving small business communities throughout Canada,” said Steeves. “Get Down to Business events will celebrate these local businesses, and work to teach them skills for continued success.”
